

Praying for Your Event Starter Guide

Praying for God to move among us...

I am so delighted to be on this journey together with you! I love to pray Scripture because I know that when we ask in accordance with God's heart, we are headed in the right direction. I personally use Scripture prayers as a great spring board in my dialogue with God. These prayers are not meant to become some sort of rote set of words. Thank you for lifting up this event with me. I am so privileged to partner with you in the Lord's work.

Lord, I pray that the eyes of my sisters' hearts may be enlightened in order that they might know the hope to which You have called them, the riches of Your glorious inheritance, and Your incomparably great power for us who believe. Please use this event to open their eyes to You, Lord! Ephesians 1:18-19

Father, bind up the broken hearted, proclaim liberty to the captives and release the ladies who come to this event from all that binds them. Use Your people to proclaim Your favor and deliverance to them. Comfort all these who have yet to come to know you and all those who already do know You. Give them beauty in place of their ashes, gladness instead of sorrow, an attitude of thanksgiving in place of hopelessness. Accomplish all this Lord amongst our women so that people will look and see and say that this is surely the work of the Lord. Isaiah 61:1-3

Lord, many here are hurting. You are the God of all comfort. Please reveal Yourself to all these hurting hearts as the One and Only answer to their heart's need (2 Corinthians 1:3).

Lord, Your Word tells us that the effective prayers of the righteous can affect much (James 5:16-18). We ask that You would cleanse us from our sin so that nothing would hinder our prayers. We confess our pride, selfishness, and stubbornness. Cleanse us from all anger and arrogance. Give us clean hands and a clean heart to be Your tools.

You command us to "love our neighbor as ourselves" Galatians 5:14. We are trying to fulfill that by praying for and serving our sisters through this event. Please receive our service and do with it what pleases You. Show us how to be reflections of Your love to these women.

Lord, I thank You that You are able to immeasurably more than we could ask or even imagine! (Ephesians 3:20) We ask that You would do a work here that would just blow everyone's mind and bring You praise, honor and glory!

Lord, thank you that we can rest assured that You will accomplish all that concerns us today (Psalm 138:8)! Thank You for holding every detail in Your hands and preparing the way for Your will to be accomplished whether or not we have it all figured out! Thank You Lord! We rest _____ in Your hands.

Father God, please cause all who teach at this event to speak with boldness, truth and power from You. Just as Paul prayed for boldness, we ask for this same anointing to fall on every teacher of Your Word at this event (Ephesians 6:19).
